

70C-2-203 Additional security in consumer leases prohibited.

A lessor, in order to secure the debt arising from a consumer lease, may not take a security interest in the dwelling of the lessee. A security interest taken in violation of this section is void from its inception.

Enacted by Chapter 159, 1985 General Session